ALLEGED BLES SAYS A TRAITOR Say He Betrayed Them When He Declared Stock Yards Strike at an End. STORMY MEETING IS HELD

Special to the Boston American.
CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—Bitter personal attacks are being made upon President Lincoln and other members of the executive organization for calling off the dog, which resulted today in the stock hands being turned away from the gates when they applied for work. They were told they could resume work as individuals, but not as members of the union.

The end came in a stormy meeting of the allied Trades Union Council, from which President Lincoln and the delegates from the Industrial Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America were expelled by the representatives of the unskilled trades, who declared that Lincoln had betrayed them by declaring the strike at an end. The Trades Union Council, without the sanction of all the unions on strike, so far as the stock hands are concerned, had been of little avail. Half an hour later the allied mechanical trades took the same line.

They were then told that the stock hands should be turned away from the yards by thousands. The new conditions will be better for the workers in the yards. The picture has been given a full week's work out of the number of employees 5,000.

REPEAL FOR COMMITTEE IN SNELL CASE WITNESS SAYS ACCUSED HAD MONEY BEFORE TRAGEDY

Special to the Boston American.
CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—The prosecution in the Snell murder trial has received a setback in the admission by a witness that the accused had money in his pocket a week before the tragedy. The witness, who is a former sweetheart of Snell, testified that she saw Snell with a bag of money, in $5 and $10 bills, a week before the tragedy. The prosecution had hoped to show that Snell came into this money suddenly after the disappearance of his sweetheart.

Miss Sherman, whose admission has added such a strong point for the defense's former sweetheart. Previous testimony by her had been damaging to Snell, though she had reluctantly asserted she had seen him with the money. She had said she would not testify against Snell.

Miss Sherman resumed the stand at the close of today's court. Her testimony, which she said she had given to the jury, was that she had seen Snell with the money. She had said she would not testify against Snell.

BAY STATE BOYS IN THE WAR GAMES AT MANASSAS.

Commanding Generals Highly Pleased With Work of the Troops in Mimic War.

By Frank T. Pope, Special Staff Correspondent of the Boston American.

CORPS HEADQUARTERS, GAINESVILLE, Va., Sept. 10.—At 11 o'clock today the war maneuvers at Bull Run were brought to a successful close. From every viewpoint the experiment has proven an educational success. The maneuvers which closed today with a grand review of the 20,000 troops by Lieutenant General Chaffee, chief of staff, Major General Curtis, and the other officers, have been a most successful and profitable military experience for both sides.

They have been highly instructive, with not a single instance of a blunder or a mistake. The maneuvers have been a most successful and profitable military experience for both sides. The maneuvers have been a most successful and profitable military experience for both sides.

General Grant was not at all satisfied with the performance of the troops. The maneuvers have been a most successful and profitable military experience for both sides. The maneuvers have been a most successful and profitable military experience for both sides.
